Miscellaneous K

70

February 26th, 1918

J. B. Kay-Fisken, Esq.,

Honorary Secretary, Overseas Club.

Dear Mr. Fisken:

I expect to be with you at the meeting of the Overseas Club next Thursday evening. I have found it necessary, however, to promise the Engineering Society of the University to be at their dinner by 9:30. In order that I may fulfil this promise perhaps Mr. Kingsford would exchange with me and allow me to speak first, so that I may get away by 9:15.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

1917-1918

60

December 21st., 1917

Mrs. R. Kennedy,

7 Brock Crescent,

Toronto.

Dear Mrs. Kennedy:

I am to-day sending your letter on to Colonel Hendry the Officer Commanding the Canadian No.4 General Hospital at Basingstoke, Hants. Your letter is to me very pathetic and I am exceedingly sorry that you have suffered so much in this war. I am telling Colonel Hendry that if he can recommend leave of absence I will be glad to write to the Military Authorities.

Yours sincerely,

President.

September 10th, 1917

J. C. Kent, Esq.,

Honorary Secretary,

Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto.

Dear Mr. Kent:

On my return home I find that you have been so kind as to send me two invitations to luncheon at the Exhibition. Allow me to thank you most warmly for this courtesy ? It would have been a great pleasure to me to be present but I was absent in Halifax and did not return to the city until Saturday evening of last week.

I am very glad to know that the Exhibition was such a success again this year and I congratulate you thereupon.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

598

January 2nd, 1918

My dear Professor Keys: (David Reid)

I am greatly indebted to you for sending me the copy of the October number of Blackwood. It was very kind of you to let me have it.

Will you please tell Normal for me that I spoke to Mr. Sedgwick about the law prospects, and in his firm he said that at present they had no vacancy, but he thought there should be good opportunity in law just now?

Wishing you the compliments of the season,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

December 24th, 1917

Lieutenant N. A. Keys, M.C.,

97 Avenue Road,

Toronto.

Dear Mr. Keys:

Will you please thank Mr. J. H. Jones for the copy of the letter written by a little French girl ? I am glad to have this as I had already heard the letter quoted by President Finley of the University of the State of New York, and I was at the time particularly struck with its beauty.

Wishing you the compliments of the season,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

625

November 10th, 1917

Professor Kilpatrick,

128 Spadina Road,

Toronto.

Dear Professor Kilpatrick:

I enclose you a letter from Mr. Silas McPee which I am sure will please you.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

612

April 4th, 1918

H. H. King, Esq.,

Secretary-Treasurer, Navy League,

84 King Street West, Toronto.

My dear Sir:

The necessity of Ireland remaining closely identified with Great Britain is so obvious that I believe it would do more harm than good to raise the question of her independence among people as I am afraid would be done through the circular of the Navy League. It should be accepted as so obvious that it could not be challenged. Therefore I do not believe that it would be wise to distribute this pamphlet.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

610

April 15th, 1918

President Kolbe, Ph.D.

Bureau of Education,

Washington, D.C.

My dear President Kolbe:

I appreciate very much your kindness in asking me to give the Commencement address at the Municipal University of Akron on June fifth. Particularly at this time I should like to be able to do something to strengthen the bonds of friendship that are growing so rapidly between our two countries. I regret, however, that it is impossible for me to do so. I have so many engagements already for that time that I simply cannot make another. Wishing you every success in your work,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.